Away from the hustle and bustle of Central Pattaya, the Na Jomtien area is fast becoming one of the most upmarket and prestigious areas of Thailand’s Eastern Seaboard due to the high quality of the area’s beaches and the number of amenities which are being constructed in the area.

One of the area’s main focal points in the Ocean Marina Yacht Club – Thailand’s premier marina complex. Early in 2013 saw the opening of the charming Mimosa Shopping Village, which has already become one of the most popular attractions in the area. The end of 2013 will see the opening of the area’s newest attraction – the vast Cartoon Network Amazone waterpark.

PURE Sunset Beach offers buyers all of these local attractions right on their doorsteps, located on one of the best remaining land plots in the area, with its own private 120m frontage of pristine golden sands. PURE Sunset Beach is a true five-star luxury development in every sense of the word. Despite the resort covering a wide area, the developments consists of just a few hundred apartments located in a handful of mostly low-rise buildings set among lush, green, tropical gardens. The natural slope of the land ensures that virtually every apartment in the resort benefits from stunning sea views.

In terms of amenities, there are few projects currently on sale in the Pattaya area that offers buyers so much choice. In addition to the large expanse of private beachfront and a variety of salt water pools and a fully equipped fitness center, you will find facilities that are hard to find elsewhere. PURE Sunset Beach is truly a resort for the whole family – with a range of amenities to match. Not only will kids enjoy the water park close by, but they can be entertained at the Jambo Club and children's arena while Mum can pamper herself at the on-site spa and beauty salons and Dad can practice his golf swings using the on-site pitch and put area or HD golf simulators.

Those wishing to cater for themselves will find all of the items they need without leaving the comfort of the resort as PURE Sunset Beach will offer several on-site shops, including a grocery, delicatessen and wine store. Those wishing to relax which on holiday though and leave the cooking to someone else, however, will probably prefer to dine at the Beach Club, where gourmet meals can be taken while enjoying the sea views.

Coming from a Swiss developer, Pure Najomtien is being built to some of the highest, and most environmentally-friendly, standards of any project currently under construction in Thailand. The quality of the finished project will rival any similar resort that you will find in Europe – or anywhere else in the world,

In summary, if you are looking for exclusive beachfront living with a wide range of family-friendly facilities at your disposal, PURE Sunset Beach is sure to be the project that you have been looking for. View less
